*Call to Worship

Praise God for the Lord who loves

Praise God for the Lord who cares

In the midst of my weakness, When I am lost,

Unable to find Even myself, There is One who seeks-One who finds Me- The lost

And rejoices in the correction of our folly

Rejoices with the angels

Rejoices with song

Rejoices for us, And with us

Often before we are aware

We were lost

"Isn't it strange how things happen?"

"It was just one of those days"

"I've decided to make a change"

These are the words we use

Rejoice and be glad,

For that which was lost has been found.

*Hymn #400

Next Steps

- Read again the Parable of the Lost Sheep (Matthew 18:10-14, Luke 15:1-7).
- “Recognize that the one you have lost may be right in your own household...” - Dr. Amy-Jill Levine. Is there someone in your household or extended family who is lost?
- With one who is lost in mind, pray that God can help you see beyond what happened in the past and find your way to forgiveness.

Don Megahan, Organist/Choirmaster; Kerri Acierno, Scripture Reader

This Morning's Music

In honor of Bastille Day (July 14), the prelude and postlude music come to us from French composers Léon Boëllmann (1862-1897) and Louis J. A. Lefébure-Wély (1817-1869). The mid-1800s was a particularly vibrant time in Paris, France, and these two, among dozens of other French organists, were writing music that gave wing to France's national sound.

Don't forget our Summer Recital Series begins this afternoon with pianist Nathan Carterette right here in our Sanctuary at 4pm!
